

Post-retirement Waiver of Survivor Pension After Separation (Optional)

Family Law Form FL-8

(Under section 67.4(8) of the Pension Benefits Act and section 35(3) of Regulation 287/11)

What you need to know before completing this waiver form

The purpose of this waiver form is to direct a plan administrator to terminate the entitlement of a spouse of a Retired Member to a survivor pension. This is an OPTIONAL form. It is to be completed by both the Retired Member's spouse and the Retired Member.

Preconditions:

- Separation occurred after the pension payments started.
- The plan administrator has provided a Statement of Family Law Value (Family Law Form FL-4E) and the Retired Member's spouse is identified in Part D.
- The Retired Member's pension has not yet been divided.

Effects:

- By signing this waiver form, the Retired Member's spouse is waiving their right to receive a survivor pension, including any guarantee payments. The Retired Member's spouse is not waiving any right to a payment under a court order, family arbitration award or domestic contract as either equalization or support.
- This waiver may not financially benefit either the Retired Member's spouse or the Retired Member:
 - The Retired Member's spouse should still report the value of the survivor pension on the Financial Statement in Part 7(c): Bank Accounts, Savings, Securities and Pensions.
 - The Retired Member's pension may or may not increase as a result of the waiver, depending on the plan terms. If there is no increase (or only a partial increase) the value that is waived remains in the pension plan. This means that the plan administrator cannot pay that waived amount to either spouse.
- This waiver cannot be cancelled after the plan administrator receives a signed copy of this waiver form.
- See the Pensions and Marriage Breakdown – a Guide for Members and their Spouses for information about the valuation and division process.

If you are considering signing this waiver form, you should get independent legal advice.
